

ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY

10:49:43

1 decided to switch from ABR to using Stem-Express as tissue
2 procurement organization?

10:50:07

3 A I was approached by a representative of Stem-Ex
4 and -- who was very enthusiastic about the research, the
5 researchers they were working with, and I felt that we would
6 contribute more to medical research by working with a
7 different company.

8 BY MR. LIMANDRI:

9 Q Who approached you from Stem-Express?

10:50:21

10 A Cate Dyer.

11 Q Had you met with her previously?

12 A No.

13 Q How many times can you estimate you've met with her
14 over the years?

10:50:29

15 MS. STERK: Objection. Vague.

16 THE WITNESS: In person, less than ten times.

17 BY MR. LIMANDRI:

18 Q Okay. And then you've spoken to her on the phone
19 as well, I take it?

10:50:39

20 A Yes.

21 Q And corresponded by email?

22 A Yes.

23 Q Do you recall what it was that Cate Dyer told you
24 in your initial conversation that gave you the impression

10:50:48

25 that she was enthusiastic about research?

ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY

10:50:52 1 A I don't remember specifics, but just that it seemed
2 that she was working with a number of researchers, and it
3 seemed very positive in terms of the benefits to society.

4 Q Did it sound to you at that time that Stem-Express
10:51:16 5 had a need for higher volume of fetal tissue specimens and
6 PPMM was providing at that time to ABR?

7 MS. STERK: Objection. Vague. Calls for speculation.

8 THE WITNESS: I don't recall really any volume being
9 discussed.

10:51:36 10 BY MR. LIMANDRI:

11 Q Do you know if there was any discussion about
12 whether or not Stem-Express would send technicians to PPMM
13 health centers on more days a week than ABR would have been
14 doing at that time?

10:51:50 15 MS. STERK: Objection. Vague.

16 THE WITNESS: I think that that's true; that it seemed 17 that Stem-Ex was working with more researchers perhaps than 18 ABR was.

19 BY MR. LIMANDRI:

10:52:06 20 Q Okay. If Stem-Express determined that a particular
21 example was not usable, would PPMM still get the $55
22 reimbursement for that sample?

23 A No.

24 Q Okay. Let's go to the first page of Exhibit 2204,
10:52:29 25 please. In the first email at the bottom of the page dated
